KISLEV-TEVET

CHANUKAH: Dec. 25-January 1
Chanukah celebrates the miraculous victory of the Jewish Maccabees over the Syrian-Greek armies in the 2nd century BCE. When the Jewish nation recaptured the Beit Hamikdash, the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, they found a little jug with just enough oil to light the menorah for one day. Miraculously, the oil burned for eight days until more arrived. To commemorate this miracle, we light the menorah, preferably with olive oil, for the eight days of Chanukah. We also serve traditional foods, such as potato latkes, fried in oil.

The Menorah: This 10 menorah represents and publicizes the Chanukah miracle. Therefore, we light it at night when it shines brightest. On Friday, it is lit before sunset in honor of Shabbat.

All family members should participate in this beautiful ceremony of light. The menorah is placed in a doorway or window so passersby can share in its light.

On the eve of the first day of Chanukah we light one candle on the menorah, and add one candle each night until eight are lit on the 8th night. The candles are placed from right to left and are lit from left to right, beginning with the newest candle. There must be enough oil or candle length to burn until 10 hour after nightfall. A "shamash" servant candle is used to light the candles and is then placed in its designated holder on the menorah. After the candles are lit, the Hanukkah prayer is recited and the family often gathers together to eat latkes and play dreidel.

The Dreidel: During the era of the Chanukah miracle, Jews were forbidden from studying Torah, but this did not stop them from teaching their children the sacred teachings. When inspectors would arrive to enforce the law, Jewish children would quickly hide their books and begin playing with tops. The custom of playing dreidel (top) commemorates this triumphant courage.

The Chanukah Feast: Although festive meals are not prescribed for the days of Chanukah, many follow the custom of investing the Chanukah meals with a special atmosphere of rejoicing. This can be done by discussing Jewish themes and reciting the miracles performed for Israel. Among Sephardic communities in Jerusalem, it is customary for communal Chanukah meals to be arranged. Friends who quarreled during the year become reconciled at these meals.
